

Villa Tanguera

Ready to be enchanted by Sicily? Villa Tanguera offers refined hospitality of the highest class.

OVERVIEW: Discover beautiful Palermo, enjoy travelling and stay at a villa on the slopes of the Capo Gallo nature reserve at Partanna-Mondello. Villa Tanguera is the perfect place to connect with your inner self. The villa is ultra-modern, sophisticated and exceedingly comfortable. Couples and small families will love spending their holidays here. This vacation home is relaxing and convenient as well as peaceful and secluded. It is ideal for visitors who enjoy their independence and appreciate that extra bit of luxury.

DETAILS: Let your trip take you on a magical journey of discovery. Sicily is fascinating and seeped in history. Your adventure begins right here, in a luxurious villa close to the sea amidst the typical Mediterranean shrub vegetation. Situated within a private estate, the house opens onto a lush green lawn, refreshing all your senses. A patio links the inside and outside of the villa, turning the gardens into an al-fresco lounge.

OUTSIDE: This two-storey house is modern and bright. The complex is surrounded by a high and lightly coloured perimeter wall, ensuring maximum privacy and security. The green space invites you to spend day or night outside: the sunken pool and large lawns are ideal to cool off on a hot day or to soak up the sun. The outside patio area is beautifully lit and stylishly furnished. The perfect setting to enjoy happy times together, from a relaxed breakfast to a pre-dinner drink or aperitivo. Large, sliding patio doors connect the villa to this private oasis.

INSIDE: Every corner of this holiday home is designed for maximum comfort. The ground floor lounge boasts a generously sized and luxurious couch and large built-in TV as well as a state of the art audio system, ideal for lovers of leisure and cinema. The thoughtfully devised interior includes a fireplace and a small piano bar designed with a functional motif. The kitchen area is fully equipped and discreetly hidden out of view from the lounge as is the ground floor shower room and WC. From the bar area one enters into the dining room where a large glass table provides a stylish setting for entertaining guests. Floor to ceiling windows enclose the space and at the same time open up the interior, giving an outdoors ambience to indoor dining. A spacious and comfortable staircase leads up to the sleeping quarters. The large master bedroom boasts the latest technology and facilities, including a Jacuzzi hot tub illuminated in iridescent shades and an adjacent bathroom and shower. The entire villa is insulated and functions perfectly in every season: cool in summer, warm and comfortable in winter. The dark wood floor, fully heated and chromatically tuned to the colors of the interior design that characterizes the villa, is a warm and sensuous companion to the guests.

AREA DETAILS: The sea and proximity to the most popular tourist areas on the coast of Palermo are the pride and joy that characterize the location of Villa Tanguera. The luxury holiday home is close to the beach of Mondello with its fine golden sand. If you prefer a more rugged look, turn to the barren and rocky coast of Capo Gallo nearby and the Addaura coastline. Close to the property are the best bars, great restaurants and the liveliest establishments of the summer season. Also nearby are supermarkets, shopping centers and specialized shops, clubs and fitness centres, including tennis courts. The motorway is within easy reach, either towards the airport or in the direction of Catania and Messina. The historic town centre of Palermo is just a short hop by car.

"We stayed in Tanguera as part of our honeymoon in Sicily and had a fantastic time. The villa is beautifully equiped and the kindness, generosity and hospitality of the owner, Franchesco, was fantastic. You cannot be disappointed with this place. His willingness to provide advice and assistance wherever needed gave us a wonderful opinion of Sicilian people. We would definately go back." Andrew T. United Kingdom
